Numb. 6876.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 21. to Saturday April 25. 1730.

Dublin, April 15.

To his Excellency John Lord Carteret, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governour of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave, before you put an End to this Seſſion, to congratulate your Excellency upon the near Proſpect of its happy Concluſion, and to return our ſincere and hearty Thanks, for the great Regard you have ſhewn for the Welfare of this Kingdom, in the whole Courſe of your juſt and wiſe Adminiſtration.

The Experience we had of your great Abilities, and of the perfect Knowledge you had acquired of the true State of this Kingdom, could not but give us the fulleſt Aſſurance of his Majeſty's gracious Intentions to his People of Ireland, in continuing your Excellency in this Government: Nor had we the leaſt doubt at the opening of this Seſſion, but that by your faithful Repreſentations of our Duty and Loyalty, and of the propereſt Meaſures to promote the real Intereſt of this Nation, the beſt Foundations would be laid to improve, and in Time carry it on to the greateſt Height.

And we already ſee the Effects of his Majeſty's Goodneſs, and of your Zeal for his Service, and for the Welfare of his People, by the many uſeful Bills tranſmitted from Great Britain for the Support and Honour of the Eſtabliſhment, the Relief of the Diſtreſſed, the Employment of the Poor, Encreaſe of Tillage, and Improvement of the Trade and Inland Navigation of the Kingdom: Nor can we omit with the utmoſt Gratitude, to acknowledge that his Royal Bounty hath prevented even our Deſires, by remitting Part of his hereditary Revenue to encourage the Induſtrious, and make us Sharers in the Advantages of the Woollen Manufactures.

Theſe Things muſt tranſmit this your third Seſſion diſtinguiſhed to Poſterity; fill us with the higheſt Eſteem and Affection for your Perſon; and make us ſtill more ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy under your juſt and mild and prudent Adminiſtration.

And as the Lords have chearfully concurred in all Meaſures for the Honour and Support of his Majeſty's Government, and for the Peace and Quiet of his People, we promiſe ourſelves from your known Juſtice and Goodneſs, that you will continue to repreſent to his Majeſty that Fidelity in which we glory, and that Zeal for the Good and Service of our County, which we know are equally acceptable to him; and to aſſure his Majeſty, that we always ſhall endeavour to preſerve amongſt the People, a juſt Senſe of the Bleſſings of his gracious Government.

To which Addreſs his Excellency was pleaſed to make this Anſwer, viz.

I Shall always remember the obliging Manner in which your Lordſhips expreſs your Satisfaction in my Endeavours for his Majeſty's Service, and the Proſperity of this Kingdom.

To his Excellency John Lord Carteret, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governour of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

THE Commons of Ireland cannot ſee an End put to this Seſſion, without acknowledging, in the moſt grateful Manner, the Advantages which this Nation hath received under the Influences of your Excellency's Government.

The many good Laws which paſſed in the two preceeding Seſſions, and thoſe which are now ready for the Royal Aſſent, will be ſo many Monuments to Poſterity of your wiſe Adminiſtration; and we ſhall ever remember, that you held that Parliament wherein his Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed to conſent to the Appropriation of a proper Fund for encouraging the Tillage, employing the Poor, and improving the Trade of this Kingdom.

The Commons conceive great Hopes that theſe Marks of his Majeſty's Goodneſs will raiſe in us a new Spirit of Induſtry, and be attended with the mutual Advantage of Great Britain and Ireland.

We do, with the greateſt Pleaſure, congratulate your Excellency on that ſingular Inſtance of Confidence repoſed in you by his Majeſty, and his late Royal Father (of Glorious Memory) in committing the Government ment of this Kingdom to your Care, during three ſucceſſive Seſſions of Parliament: And we are perſwaded that the Unanimity and Temper, as well as the Succeſs of our Proceedings, particularly in ſettling and effectually providing for the national Debt, muſt at once ſhew the Satisfaction the Commons have in the Choice of two great and wiſe Princes, under whom your Excellency has continued to preſide over us, and be a convincing Proof of our Zeal for his Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government.

We aſſure ourſelves from your Excellency's known Juſtice and Goodneſs, that you will in ſuch Manner repreſent to his Majeſty the Duty and Affection of his faithful Subjects of Ireland, as may entitle them to the Continuance of his Royal Favour and Protection.

Bruen Worthington, and Iſaac Ambroſe. } Cl. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Excellency's Anſwer.

THIS affectionate Addreſs gives me a very ſenſible Pleaſure, and will engage me to preſerve your Eſteem, by continuing my utmoſt Endeavours for the Good of this Kingdom.

This Day (April 15) his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant went to the Houſe of Peers with the uſual Solemnity; and the Commons being ſent for thither, his Excellency gave the Royal aſſent to,

An Act for the Encouragement of Tillage and better Employment of the poor; and alſo for the more effectual putting in Execution an Act, intituled, An Act to encourage the draining and improving of Boggs and unprofitable low Grounds, and for eaſing and diſpatching the inland Carriage and Conveyance of Goods from one Part to another within this Kingdom; and alſo for laying ſeveral Duties upon Coaches, Berlins, Chariots, Calaſhes, Chaiſes and Chairs, and upon Cards and Dice, and upon wrought and manufactured Gold and Silver Plate imported into or made in Ireland, for the Purpoſes therein mentioned; and alſo for repealing the Duties payable upon the Exportation of Wool, Bay Yarn, and Woollen Yarn out of this Kingdom for England.

An Act for the further explaining and amending ſeveral Statutes for prohibiting Under Sheriffs and Sheriffs Clerks from officiating as Sub-Sheriffs or Sheriffs Clerks more than one Year; and to render more effectual an Act to prevent Fees being taken in certain Caſes, and to take away the pretended Office of Barony Clerk, and to oblige Sheriffs to appoint Deputies for granting Replevins, and alſo for diſcharging of Priſoners unable to pay their Fees.

An Act for explaining and amending an Act, intituled, An Act to prevent the Diſorders that may happen by the marching of Soldiers, and for providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers in their March.

An Act for the better keeping Churches in Repair.

An Act for ſupplying a Defect in an Act, for rendring more effectual an Act for the better enabling the Clergy having Cure of Souls to reſide upon their reſpective Benefits, and for the Encouragement of Proteſtant Schools within this Kingdom of Ireland.

An Act for explaining and amending the ſeveral Laws now in Force for the paving and cleanſing the Streets of the City of Dublin, and the Liberties of St. Sepulcher's, Thomas Court, and Donore, and for other purpoſes therein mentioned.

An Act to prevent unlawful Combinations of Workmen, Artificers and Labourers, employed in the ſeveral Trades and Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for the better payment of their Wages; as alſo to prevent Abuſes in making of Bricks, and to aſcertain their Dimenſions.

An Act for the more ſpeedy Tryal of Criminals in the County of the City of Dublin.

An Act for the better regulating the Fees of Juſtices of the Peace, and for diſabling Alderman Thomas Wilkinſon and Alderman Thomas Bolton from acting as Juſtices of the Peace within this Kingdom.

An Act for the better enabling the Governors of the Work-Houſe of the City of Dublin to provide for and employ the Poor therein, and for the more effectual puniſhment of Vagabonds; and alſo for the better ſecuring of and providing for Lunaticks and Foundling Children.

An Act for repairing the Road leading from the City of Dublin to Kilcullen Bridge, in the County of Kildare.

An Act for repairing the Road leading from the City of Dublin to the Town of Navan, in the County of Meath.

An Act for the Relief of Inſolvent Debtors.

An Act for cleanſing the Ports, Harbours and Rivers of the City of Cork, and of the Towns of Galway, Sligoe, Drogheda, and Belfaſt, and for erecting a Ballaſt-Office in the ſaid City, and each of the ſaid Towns.

An Act for explaining and amending an Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, intituled, An Act for erecting and continuing Lights in the City of Dublin, and the ſeveral veral Liberties adjoyning, and alſo in the Cities of Cork and Limerick, and Liberties thereof.

An Act for finiſhing and regulating the Hoſpital founded by Richard Stevens, Eſq; Doctor of Phyſick.

And to Five private Bills.

After which his Excellency made the following Speech to both Houſes.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

HAving obeyed his Majeſty's Commands in giving his Royal Aſſent to the Laws you have prepared, I ſhall now put an End to this Seſſion of Parliament, in which you have given moſt remarkable Proofs of your Duty and Affection to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and have ſhown a true Care and Concern for the Eaſe and Proſperity of your Fellow Subjects. I make no doubt, but you have received the greateſt Satisfaction in obſerving, that the Bill for Encouragement of Tillage and better Employment of the Poor, ſo well calculated to increaſe the Trade and Riches of this Kingdom, hath received ſuch an Addition, by his Majeſty's having been graciouſly pleaſed to remit his hereditary Duties upon the Exportation of Wool and Yarn, as muſt lay a Foundation to make the Effects of that Act ſtill more beneficial and extenſive.

This Inſtance of His Majeſty's Deſire to promote the Manufactures of his Kingdoms, cannot but produce the higheſt Returns of Duty and Affection from all his Subjects.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I am commanded by his Majeſty, to return you Thanks for the Supplies you have granted for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment, and for making ſo effectual a Proviſion for the National Debt. It muſt contribute very much to the Honour of this Parliament, that, at a Time when you were raiſing new Funds to make good the Deficiencies, you were able to reduce the Intereſt of the former Debt, with a due Regard to parliamentary Credit, and to raiſe the Money, which the publick Service required, at an eaſier Rate than hath hitherto been known in this Kingdom; and I am perſwaded that the immediate Application of thoſe Sums to the Purpoſes for which they were intended, has been entirely to your Satisfaction.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I can make no doubt, but on your Return into your ſeveral Countries, you will in your reſpective Stations, act in ſuch a Manner, as may moſt effectually promote his Majeſty's Service and the publick Tranquility.

I am glad to ſee the Condition of the Kingdom ſo much altered, that a Prohibition againſt the Exportation of Corn is become no longer neceſſary: And I hope by a due Execution of the Law now paſſed for encouraging of Tillage, ſuch a Scarcity of Corn, as this Kingdom lately laboured under, may, by the Bleſſing of God, be prevented for the future.

I take this Opportunity to renew to you my Thanks for the conſtant Regard and Zeal you have ſhown for the Honour and Eaſe of his Majeſty's Government, during the whole Courſe of my Adminiſtration: And as I have had a long and repeated Experience of your Duty, Loyalty and Affection to his Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Royal Family, I ſhall not fail, on my Return into his Royal Preſence, to make a full and faithful Repreſentation of the loyal and dutiful Behaviour of his Subjects of Ireland.

Then the Lord Chancellor ſaid by his Excellency's Command.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency my Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, That this Parliament ſhould be prorogued to Thurſday the Fourteenth Day of May next: And this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thurſday the Fourteenth Day of May next.

En. Sterne Cler. Parliamentor.
